Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The staff at Sioux Vocational Services is committed to a mission of finding innovative ways for people with disabilities to achieve their dreams; and,

Whereas, By focusing on that mission, the lives of many people are full and meaningful, and they are able to change lives one day at a time, one person at a time; and,

Whereas, The Sioux Vocational Services staff has set the standard of excellence by finding unique and successful ways to provide services; and,

Whereas, Sioux Vocational Services has 430 employees who have dedicated themselves to knowing what is important to people and have provided opportunities by listening to the people they serve; and,

Whereas, Sioux Vocational Services has been nationally accredited for 27 consecutive years – longer than any organization of its type in the nation; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize, honor and thank the staff of Sioux Vocational Services for the many ways they have contributed to the lives of the people they support:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 2006 as in South Dakota.

SIOUX VOCATIONAL SERVICES
EMPLOYEE APPRECIATION MONTH

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
